To Whom it May Concern:

Alexa Whitehurst worked for me as both an intern, and a paid freelancer. As the Creative Director for Accessories and Footwear for Michael Kors, my responsibilities are many. Alexa was a fine example of a good employee. She is dedicated, articulate, and eager. It was a pleasure to have her on my team for the months she worked here. It's rare to find someone who 'really cares' about their work, and so dependable. I could count on Alexa, and would recommend her for any position.

Alexa is bright, enthusiastic, determined, and proactive. There were many examples of how she helped me in my creative responsibilities, as well as her aid in management and administrative. Both she excelled in.

If you have questions or concerns, you are welcome to reach out to me at any time.
